Supported by:

Are you looking for help to find funding for your voluntary or community group?

Whether your group is looking for just a hundred pounds or thousands of pounds, the Hertfordshire External Resources Network (HERN) has been set up to help you do just that.

HERN is a network of organisations and individuals whose aim is to maximise the amount of external funding (money that is sourced from outside the county) that can be brought into Hertfordshire.

Why not take a look at HERN's web site www.hertsdirect.org/hern which has been especially set up to help you access funding opportunities. The site includes information on:

- Funding information and advice
- Sources of funding and funders' websites
- Funding information events
- Funding questions and answers
- Free funding searches

Try the free Grantnet funding search facility or browse Grants4Hertfordshire to find out what your group might be eligible for. Don't forget the website is available 24 hours of every day!

MissionFish – eBay for Charity

Fundraising

eBay for Charity helps charities of all sizes to raise funds on the online marketplace, ebay.co.uk . It gives active eBay users an easy way to support their favourite charities by making donations when they buy and sell. Charities can also sell their own items directly on eBay to raise unrestricted funds. eBay's partner, MissionFish vets charities, processes donations, collects Gift Aid and advises charities on how to make the most of the eBay marketplace.
